Organisers of international horticultural exhibitions from Asia, Europe, the Middle East and North America gathered in Sydney on 9 March 2026. They met for the AIPH International Horticultural Expo Conference, held during the AIPH Meeting Sydney 2026. Hosted with support from Greenlife Industry Australia, the conference brought together Expo organisers, government representatives, industry partners, and AIPH members to share progress updates on upcoming exhibitions scheduled from 2026 until 2031.
