

MYPLANT & GARDEN RETURNS IN 2022

Myplant & Garden Returns in 2022

The Milan based trade fair for the Italian Garden industry returns in February 2022.

Focusing on horticulture, garden and landscaping, this will be the 6th edition, held from February 23-25.

Strong Signal

It's a strong signal of restart for production, commerce and the economy, post-corona. 200,000 companies choose Italian trade fairs every year, because of their strategic role in corporate growth and development.

In this scenario, Myplant has rapidly brought the garden industry into focus of the International markets, offering an ever more qualified platform for business.

Technology & Innovation

Myplant & Garden will present the best of production, technology and innovation to the operators of the garden industry at Fiera Milano-Rho.

It will do so in compliance with health regulations and it will take good care of the thousands of companies and professionals that have participated in and contributed to the event over the years.

www.myplantgarden.com