

CULTIVATION WITH PASSION

Cultivation with Passion

Floricoltura Gagliolo are based on the plain of Albenga. They specialise in the production of aromatic herbs.

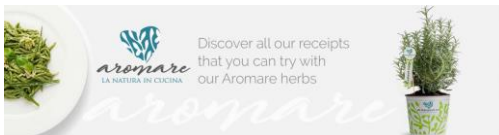

Since the early 1980's, their passion for growing, coupled with investment, has made Floricoltura Gagliolo one of the most dynamic companies in the North of Italy.

New Product Line of Aromatic Herbs

Its 'beating heart' are the aromatic herbs, available throughout the year. Over the last few years the company has also started the production of flowering plants in order to diversify and expand its supply.

The quality and the constant uniformity (in terms of proportions of the plants) are its peculiar characteristics.
